Why Bio-based?

Bio-based products are composed wholly or in significant part of biological products including renewable agricultural or forestry materials. Using bio-based products makes a difference by enhancing production of our domestic resources, encouraging rural manufacturing, and reducing the need for oil-based ingredients. Kutol's alcohol hand sanitizers disinfect with ethanol derived from grain grown on domestic farms, not from petroleum, thus sustaining nature's own cycle.

Reach your environmental goals and maintain healthy, sanitary facilities with Kutol hand hygiene products.

Both formulas are bio-based from renewable domestic agricultural materials
